

School Nutrition Civil Rights Process for Apollo Career Center

Apollo Career Center is a sponsor of the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) Food Nutrition Services Child Nutrition Programs. Apollo Career Center provides benefits to all eligible individuals without discrimination in accordance with Federal civil rights law and USDA policy as governed by FNS Instruction 113-1. The USDA, its Agencies, offices, employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, gender, age, and disability.

Program participants who would like to make a complaint regarding Child Nutrition Programs should contact Cafeteria Supervisor, Carla Blymyer at 419-998-2944 and carla.blymyer@apollocc.org. All complaints must be submitted within 180 days of the incident for which the complaint is alleged. Cafeteria Supervisor, Carla Blymyer will not attempt to resolve the claim without first providing the claimant information on how to file a complaint. Cafeteria Supervisor, Carla Blymyer will provide the complainant with instructions on where to obtain the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form online and offer a hard copy of the form as an alternative.

Cafeteria Supervisor, Carla Blymyer will provide instructions to the complainant on where to forward the completed USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form by any of the following methods:

1. Mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture,
Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights
1400 Independence Ave. SW
Washington, D.C. 20250-9410
2. Fax: (833) 256-1665 or (202) 690-7442
3. Email: program.intake@usda.gov

A complainant may choose to not complete a form and instead submit the complaint verbally or in person. Cafeteria Supervisor, Carla Blymyer will write the elements of the complaint for the complainant, utilizing the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form.

All complaints, written, verbal or anonymous, received by Cafeteria Supervisor, Carla Blymyer will be forwarded to the USDA, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, within five calendar days. The Apollo Career Center will:

- Log all complaints and maintain all documentation for four years after the complaint is closed;
- Indicate whether the complaint is received verbally, in writing, anonymous, or in person;
- Make its employees available for interviews as necessary during investigations;
- Provide documents upon request during the investigation;
- Participate in attempts to resolve the complaint;
- Notify the Ohio Department of Education and Workforce of all complaints by contacting their Education Program Specialist.

In accordance with federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, this institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity.

Program information may be made available in languages other than English. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication to obtain program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotope, American Sign Language), should contact the responsible state or local agency that administers the program or USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TTY) or contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339.

To file a program discrimination complaint, a Complainant should complete a Form AD-3027, USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form which can be obtained online at: <https://www.usda.gov/sites/default/files/documents/USDA-OASCR%20P-Complaint-Form-0508-0002-508-11-28-17Fax2Mail.pdf>, from any USDA office, by calling (866) 632-9992, or by writing a letter addressed to USDA. The letter must contain the complainant's name, address, telephone number, and a written description of the alleged discriminatory action in sufficient detail to inform the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights (ASCR) about the nature and date of an alleged civil rights violation. The completed AD-3027 form or letter must be submitted to USDA by:
